

Building Strategic Partnerships with SGNA

2016 SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

September 2015

Dear Friends,

For more than forty years, SGNA has served as a highly respected forum for leaders in GI nursing. Our community, made up of more than 8,000 members and their patients, include the best and brightest in the GI/endoscopy field. SGNA's members are continuously seeking to further their education through SGNA's Annual Course, Regional Society meetings, independent learning opportunities and networking.

SGNA is growing every day, attracting new groups of professionals within our practice area. In addition to expanding our membership, SGNA is fostering opportunities for research and education that impact members and GI professionals. SGNA's strategic goals and objectives are strengthened through a collaborative relationship with our industry partners, who play a key role in providing essential funding for our programs and challenge us to think of innovative ways to help our members propel forward. We are all working together to Break the Mold and create a new path for SGNA's community. We are looking to provide the very best — and in some cases new — in delivering education, patient care, leadership and collaboration.

Members of the SGNA community look to our organization for help seeking out the latest innovations, systems and equipment that will help them provide the best patient care possible. When you partner with SGNA, you can directly connect with GI nursing professionals to demonstrate your company's commitment to gastroenterology and endoscopy nursing, and access nursing leaders who have significant influence over purchasing decisions in their offices and labs.

Together, we can accomplish a great deal. We look forward to partnering with you.

Sincerely,
Lisa Fonkalsrud, BSN RN CGRN
SGNA President

Dear Current & Future Partners,

SGNA is the premier organization for gastroenterology and endoscopy nursing professionals, providing numerous opportunities for you to interact and engage with this influential community.

In our rapidly changing healthcare environment, our members look to SGNA partners to help educate and showcase emerging technology and innovation.

I encourage you to explore the opportunities presented as they provide a foundation for which we can build the ideal opportunity for you. We are always available to meet and discuss alternative packages or support options, so please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

Many sponsorship levels are available, each offering special benefits to help propel your business and build a strong partnership with SGNA. Regardless of your company's business objectives, I am certain SGNA has an opportunity for you.

As an SGNA sponsor, you will gain exposure to and recognition from nurses and associates who are leaders in the field. You will also benefit from outstanding opportunities to interact with our members in scientific, business and social environments.

I look forward to working with you.

Regards,

Jessica Eustice, SGNA Director of Corporate Relations

SGNA Practice Documents

SGNA Position Statements and SGNA Standards and Guidelines address issues directly affecting the practice of gastroenterology nursing. The cornerstone of the specialty and Society, these practice documents are essential to providing safe, effective patient care based on evidence. Members use this resource to help ensure their facilities are following SGNA standards for staffing and equipment use. SGNA is committed to setting the highest-quality standards for gastrointestinal endoscopy through safety guidelines and the training of our members, so that patients receive the best and safest care possible through the following programs:

SGNA MOBILE APP FEATURING PRACTICE DOCUMENTS AND ANNUAL COURSE APP $50,000

SGNA at your fingertips and in the palm of your hand! In 2015 SGNA introduced a comprehensive app for mobile devices and tablets. The app provides users with easy access to a variety of valuable resources. The app features the comprehensive practice document resource guide. Practice Documents provide a framework for the practice of gastroenterology/endoscopy nursing and are heavily utilized by GI nursing professionals across the nation and in every type of practice setting. The app also includes the Annual Course event app for use by attendees to access schedule information, speaker bios, room locations, exhibitor descriptions and more. Support of the app includes prominent recognition on the SGNA mobile app and the practice document portion of the SGNA website. ★ ↑ ◀

SGNA POSITION STATEMENTS & STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES SELF STUDY $10,000 / Each

Sponsored position statements or standards and guidelines will offer Society members contact hour credit for reviewing the information and completing an online self-assessment exam. Each sponsored position statement or standard and guideline will be available to members on SGNA's website for a period of one year. ★ ↑ ◀

Infection Prevention Program

SGNA's Infection Prevention Program highlights the importance of maintaining high-quality infection prevention practices. From basic hand washing and safe injection practices to following guidelines established by medical societies and manufacturer instructions for equipment reprocessing, medical practitioners must keep infection prevention a top priority for patient safety. SGNA is committed to setting the highest-quality standards for gastrointestinal endoscopy through safety guidelines and the training of our members so that patients receive the best and safest care possible through the following programs:

SGNA INFECTION PREVENTION CHAMPIONS WEBSITE

$25,000/ Year or $2,500/ Month

This important website encompasses all components of the Champions Program and Toolkit for easy access to resources and training materials. The Infection Prevention website will house educational and training tools, comprehensive industry information and an online discussion forum for champions. The website will be available to the general public with greater access given to Champions. The Infection Prevention Champions website is currently the second most visited page on the SGNA website averaging over 2,200 visits per month. ★ ↑ ◀

SGNA INFECTION PREVENTION CHAMPIONS SCHOLARSHIP

$1,000

The Infection Prevention Champions Scholarship supports the subscription fee for a program enrolling in the Champions Program. The scholarship is valid for one year and prominently recognized with Infection Prevention Champions promotions. ★ ↑ ◀

Professional Certification

Achieving and maintaining the highest level of distinction is valuable to many GI/endoscopy nurses, which can be done with the CGRN credentials. Additional opportunities for supporting Certified Gastroenterology Registered Nurses are available through ABCGN.

GI/ENDOSCOPY NURSING REVIEW COURSE AND MANUAL

$25,000

More than 500 GI nurses take the ABCGN CGRN certification exam annually. Support GI nursing certification with your support of these valuable reference materials to help members prepare for the CGRN Certification Exam. This package includes the GI/Endoscopy Nursing Review: Certification Study Manual and two Certification Review Courses. ★ ↑

Continuing Education Opportunities

Members of the GI/endoscopy nursing community look to SGNA for continuing education and contact hour opportunities. In addition to the Annual Course, SGNA has many programs that can provide valuable education, so facilities can provide the best in patient care:

TRAIN THE TRAINER: THE REPROCESSING COMPETENCY DEFINED COURSE

$15,000 / Hosted at Your Facility

$20,000 / Stand-alone Course

The Train the Trainer Course was designed for GI-registered nurses and staff members who hold the responsibility to ensure cleaning and disinfection of endoscopes is done safely and effectively. These two half-day courses (both to take place on same day) cover SGNA Standards and Guidelines, the reprocessing procedure through hands-on practice and provides attendees with adult learning strategies for implementing competencies and improved procedures in their facilities. ★ ◀

A sponsoring company may host the course at your own facility, bringing customers to you!

TRAIN THE TRAINER COURSE SCHOLARSHIP

Support of the Train the Trainer Scholarship provides direct support to deserving applicants to cover the cost of travel to the course and the registration fee.

QUARTERLY WEBINARS

$5,000 per Webinar

$15,000 Upgrade per Webinar Recording to include Free CE for One Year

$5,000 Upgrade – Webinar CD-ROMs for Distribution

Webinars on a variety of hot topics are offered to SGNA members on a quarterly basis. These educational offerings not only provide continuing education credits, but they bring important up-to-the-minute education to members at the stroke of a computer key. For an additional fee, the sponsored webinar will be recorded and available on the SGNA website for one year, offering widespread recognition throughout 2016. Each recording of a webinar includes unlimited free CE for members for one year, plus 500 contact hours for non-members. For an additional fee, 500 CD-ROMs are available for distribution. ★ ↑ ◀

VIRTUAL ROAD SHOW

$50,000

SGNA will present a Virtual Road Show session to many Regional Societies for the first time in 2016. The Road Show will be broadcast from a partner site to invited Regional Societies, who will convene members at local institutions to participate. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions and interact with the speakers in real time. ★ ↑ ◀

★ Nurse Managers/Supervisors ↑ Nursing Staff ◀ Associates/Technicians

Self-Study Opportunities

SGNA provides online educational programs to its members that offer free contact hour opportunities. Member participation in these programs has doubled over the past three years. Topics include Inflammatory Bowel Disease and selected Annual Course educational sessions. CD-ROMs for distribution are available, as well as additional opportunities that will allow SGNA members and non-members to participate electronically to earn a contact hour certificate.

INFLAMMATORY BOWEL DISEASE MODULES I, II, III & IV

$20,000 Per Module

SGNA continues to offer convenient, learner driven activities that provide contact hours for Society members, allowing them to continue their professional advancement. Sponsorship of an IBD Module provides for one year of a free contact hour for SGNA members. Recognition is provided for the sponsored module, as well as on the SGNA website and through various electronic announcements throughout the year.

SELF STUDY MODULES: ANNUAL COURSE SESSIONS

$15,000 per recording for 2014 – 2015 Annual Course sessions

$20,000 per recording for 2016 Annual Course sessions (includes recognition at sponsored session)

Upgrade for $5,000 for 500 CD-ROMs for distribution

Each recording of an Annual Course session includes unlimited free CE for members for one year, plus 500 contact hours for non-members. For an additional fee, 500 CD-ROMs are available for distribution. All recorded content must be reviewed for approval before finalizing a sponsorship.

GI PROCEDURE DVD LIBRARY

$10,000 for 200 DVDS and 500 Contact Hours

Provide valuable training opportunities and self-study contact hours with SGNA's GI Procedure DVD Library. Each DVD features live footage of the procedure; interviews with the patient, physician, nurse and technician; step-by-step procedure guides, discussion questions/exams and contact hour evaluations/forms. The DVD topics available: Endoscopic Variceal Ligation (EVL/Banding); Endoscopic Retrograde Cholangiopancreatography (ERCP); and Self-Expanding Metal Stent (SEMS).

Your support of the DVD Library will help increase knowledge of advanced procedures and GI/endoscopy units develop better team cohesion that leads to higher patient care and comfort and provide valuable self-study contact hour opportunities. After viewing the DVD, participants complete an evaluation and return it to SGNA to receive the contact hour certificate. Sponsorship package includes 200 DVDs (one topic) and 500 total contact hour certificates for distribution.

Evidence-based Practice Opportunities

As part of the Society's initiative to train SGNA members in the area of evidence-based practice and research, two programs focus on evidence-based practice related to GI/endoscopy issues. Through participation in evidence-based practice activities, SGNA members learn to translate evidence into practice and are better positioned to make clinical decisions that will positively affect patient care, improve patient outcomes and increase the knowledge base within the GI/endoscopy practice. The following programs require a three-year commitment from SGNA members:

NURSE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

$40,000

The SGNA Nurse Fellowship Program focuses on the education and support of staff nurses in the area of evidence-based practice. SGNA Fellows will focus on developing innovative evidence-based projects designed to address GI/endoscopy related issues in their current practice settings. Visit the Evidence-based Practice and Research Education pages of the SGNA website for a complete listing of the current Nurse Fellows and their evidence-based practice projects. ↑

SCHOLARS PROGRAM

$40,000

The purpose of the SGNA Scholars program is to educate and train doctorate or master's prepared GI/endoscopy nurses in order to build a repository of evidence applicable to the GI/endoscopy setting. SGNA Scholars will conduct systematic reviews of gastroenterology literature to synthesize the latest evidence in the specialty. Visit the Evidence-based Practice and Research Education pages of the SGNA website for a complete listing of the current Scholars and their systematic review titles. ★

SGNA Associates Programs

Associates and technicians receive an overview of gastroenterology and endoscopy with the following training programs offered by SGNA:

ASSOCIATE PROGRAM

$25,000 / Program Sponsorship

This recently revamped program includes comprehensive online modules that provide the associate or technician (or any new member of the team) with the basic understanding of the GI/endoscopy unit. These modules cover key topics such as: anatomy and physiology, equipment, infection control, patient care, risk management, roles and responsibilities, safety and emergency preparedness. Upon successful completion, participants receive their GTS (GI Technical Specialist) designation, along with an electronic certificate of completion and lapel pin. <

ADVANCED ASSOCIATE PROGRAM

$25,000 / Program Sponsorship

This program includes comprehensive online modules designed for associates and technicians to earn a higher level of education and recognition. The Advanced Program provides an opportunity to further one's knowledge in the GI/endoscopy field by applying critical thinking skills through case studies. Completion of the Associates Program is a pre-requisite for enrolling in the Advanced Program. Upon successful completion of either program, participants receive their AGTS (Advanced GI Technical Specialist) designation, along with an electronic certificate of completion and lapel pin. <

SGNA Scholarships

Providing SGNA members with opportunities to further their practice and professional development is a cornerstone to our Society. Funding opportunities to partner with this effort is available with the following programs:

SGNA RN ADVANCING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

$2,500 / Each

SGNA is offering the RN Advancing Education Scholarship to a registered nurse working in gastroenterology who wishes to continue her or his education by pursuing a BSN, MSN or PhD. Candidates will be reviewed by the Awards Committee and scholarships of $2,500 will be awarded to qualifying submitters. Eligible applicants are SGNA members enrolled in an accredited advanced degree program who have a minimum GPA of 3.0.

ANNUAL COURSE SCHOLARSHIPS

$1,500 / Each

DEADLINE: March 15, 2016

Contributions for educational grants benefit patients, families and caregivers through preservation of quality education in the specialty of gastroenterology and endoscopy nursing. SGNA awards scholarships and educational grants for members to attend the Annual Course. Based on available funding, grants will be awarded each spring to those members who meet the established criteria. Each sponsor will have the opportunity to promote their company's recipient(s) during the Annual Course.

FIRST TIME ATTENDEE ANNUAL COURSE SCHOLARSHIPS

$1,500 / Each

DEADLINE: March 15, 2016

The SGNA First Time Attendee Scholarship has been established to help new SGNA members (those who have been members for less than two years) attend their first SGNA Annual Course. The scholarship is designed to help professionals who are new to the GI/endoscopy field experience all that the Annual Course has to offer. Based on available funding, grants will be awarded each spring to those members who meet the established criteria. Each sponsor will have the opportunity to promote their company's recipient(s) during the Annual Course.

ASSOCIATES AND ADVANCED ASSOCIATES PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIPS

$1,000 / Each

The SGNA Associates and Advanced Associates Program Scholarships have been established to help associate and technician members complete their GTS (GI Technical Specialist) or their AGTS (Advanced GI Technical Specialist) training through SGNA's online training program. Your sponsorship will fund grants in your company name for members who meet the established criteria.

NURSE MENTORING PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIPS

$1,000 / Each (approximately 25 available)

The SGNA Nurse Manager Mentoring Program offers new and aspiring nurse managers with an eight month program to develop their knowledge, skills and analytical abilities to become an effective nurse manager. Core components of the program include mentorship, peer learning and specialized training at the local and national level. Leadership Opportunities

The success of SGNA is largely due to our rich history of strong leaders. SGNA takes succession planning and leadership cultivation very seriously, with programs and training catering specifically to ensuring a great future for the Society and specialty. Support SGNA efforts to prepare tomorrow's leaders:

LEADERSHIP COMPETENCY TRAINING

Prices Vary

Demands on senior nursing staff continue to increase as nurse managers and educators are expected to have high levels of business acumen and strong communication, presentation and facilitation skills. SGNA continues to grow its curriculum to meet the needs of nurse managers and educators including budgeting, financial management and contract negotiations training, as well as communication and presentation skills. Components of the program include:

- A variety of 2016 Annual Course Sessions on leadership and management skills.
- Three 60-90 minute Webinars utilizing BRODY Professional Development, each offering continuing education credit.
- Half-day Annual Course session focusing on effective development and delivery of presentations by examining techniques of organization, development and delivery.
- Nurse Manager Mentoring Program offers new and aspiring nurse managers with an eight month program to develop their knowledge, skills and analytical abilities to become an effective nurse manager. Core components of the program include mentorship, peer learning and specialized training at the local and national level.
- Financial Management for Nurse Managers provides valuable online training and guidance to navigate the fiduciary responsibilities required for managers. This educational course provides education for nurse managers to be armed with the right vocabulary, knowledge and tools to increase confidence and competency when representing their unit's financial needs and role within their facility.

Regional Societies

Show your support of SGNA's Regional Societies and bring valuable training to future leaders of the Society by sponsoring a Regional Leadership event:

FALL REGIONAL PRESIDENTS LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

$10,000

The annual Fall Leadership Conference provides members of SGNA's regional societies with leadership training, mentoring and networking opportunities. The conference offers essential tools and tips on leadership to incoming Regional Presidents as well as other board members prior to assuming their elected officer roles for the upcoming year. This conference is the only meeting outside of the Annual Course that brings the SGNA Leadership together.

SPRING REGIONAL PRESIDENTS LEADERSHIP SESSION

$5,000

The annual Spring Leadership Session is held in conjunction with the SGNA Annual Course and provides members of SGNA's regional societies with leadership training, mentoring and networking opportunities. The session offers essential tools and tips on leadership to new Regional Presidents as well as other board members prior to assuming their elected officer roles for the upcoming year.

Operational Resources

SGNA provides valuable services to our community, which requires infrastructure and management. Help support SGNA with the following opportunities:

SGNA WEBSITE

$25,000/ Year or $2,500/ Month

www.sgna.org continues to be one of the premier websites in the industry. With increased functionality, the website is the day-to-day touch point for all SGNA activities. The SGNA website receives an average of 23,050 users per month, with visitors remaining on the site for approximately five minutes per visit.

MEMBER SERVICES TOLL-FREE NUMBER

$25,000/ Year or $2,500/ Month

Imagine more than 42,000 nurses a year hearing "Hello, thank you for calling SGNA, brought to you by (your company name and tagline)." One toll-free phone number allows callers to reach SGNA Headquarters, place a product order or register for the Annual Course. Inquiries include membership questions, educational opportunities, certification and clinical questions.

NEW MEMBER WELCOME MESSAGE

$2,500

Be a sponsor of the welcome letter for new SGNA members! Packed with important information, the SGNA member benefits announcement is a great introduction to SGNA for new GI nurses and associates. Additional recognition will include logo recognition on the New Member web page. Reach approximately 1,200 nurses and associates annually with this message.

Annual Course Educational Opportunities

The SGNA Annual Course is the ideal way for GI/endoscopy nursing professionals to receive valuable education and contact hours. Support of educational activities include:

OPENING KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND OPENING SESSION BEVERAGE BREAK – SUNDAY, MAY 22, 2016 $20,000

Extend a warm welcome to conference attendees by hosting the first beverage break of the Annual Course! Attendees will be appreciative of the chance to network with peers and talk about the upcoming events.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Your support of this dynamic session will be prominently recognized on signage, slides, and from the podium at the session, and will help kick off the Seattle meeting on a high note.

GENERAL SESSIONS

$7,500 Each

Three general sessions will be offered during the 43rd Annual Course. General Sessions have a sizable audience, with no competing events, and give attendees a chance to collectively come together for educational sessions. Gain valuable awareness, and reach all participants in one setting by supporting a general session.

CLOSING KEYNOTE – TUESDAY, MAY 24, 2016

$7,500

Your support of the Closing Keynote will be prominently recognized on signage, slides, and from the podium at the event

EDUCATIONAL TOPICS AND CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Concurrent Sessions: $5,000

Optional Sessions: $2,500-$5,000

EDUCATIONAL TOPICS PRICING DEPENDENT ON NUMBER OF SESSIONS WITHIN THE TOPIC SELECTED

Concurrent educational sessions are the backbone of the SGNA Annual Course. SGNA provides quality, cutting-edge education for GI nurses and associates throughout the continuum of their career. Let members know you support their continuing education in the field of GI/endoscopy by sponsoring one or more sessions or an entire topic including all of the sessions within that category. Many presentations are selected from abstracts submitted to SGNA and cover a variety of clinical and managerial issues. Support of concurrent and optional sessions is prominently recognized on signage, slides, and from the podium during the sessions.

EDUCATIONAL TOPICS

Courses are offered in the following educational categories, with sessions geared toward various experience levels:

- GI Diseases (IBD, Hepatitis, Liver Disease, Colorectal Cancer, etc.)
- Management/Leadership Skills/Business Acumen
- Procedure Skills (ERCP, EUS, PEG, Bronchoscopy)
- Emerging Technology
- Infection Prevention
- Evidence-based Practice and Research
- Sedation Administration
- Associate/Technician
- Ambulatory
- Office
- Pediatric
- Pulmonary

POSTER CENTER AWARDS AND POSTER ORAL PRESENTATIONS

$10,000

The Poster Center is an important part of the educational experience and contact hour opportunity at the Annual Course. Members value the learning experience that your sponsorship will provide. Show your support by underwriting the Poster Center, Awards for Education and Research poster winners and the Poster Oral Presentations – an opportunity for attendees to ask questions and learn more from the poster creators.

SPEAKERS FUND/SPEAKER READY ROOM

$1,000 Minimum

A key reason attendees come to the Annual Course is for the excellent education provided by the highly qualified speakers. This fund helps support SGNA's ongoing educational efforts by supporting the speaker ready room, used by presenters and volunteer moderators throughout the Course.

Annual Course Specialty Items

An essential way to gain additional recognition during the premier event for GI/endoscopy nursing professionals, the deadline for these opportunities is February 27, 2016 unless noted otherwise:

ANNUAL COURSE ONSITE POCKET GUIDE

$15,000

A handy reference booklet, the pocket guide is used by attendees throughout the Annual Course. Attendees will see your company logo many times as they reference the program throughout the Course.

WATER STATIONS WITH WATER BOTTLE

$12,500

Help SGNA attendees and the environment by sponsoring water stations placed throughout the Annual Course facility. Each attendee will receive a water bottle featuring your company's logo. Attendees will refill their water bottles and see your company's name throughout the course.

CHARGING STATIONS

$10,000

SGNA attendees will stay plugged in with convenient charging stations placed at the SGNA Zone. The perfect place to recharge a phone, tablet or other mobile device, charging stations will feature your company's logo.

Annual Course Social Events

Support networking opportunities — a valuable way for our attendees to make connections that last beyond the Annual Course. The deadline for these opportunities is February 27, 2016 unless noted otherwise:

CELEBRATION RECEPTION

$35,000

All attendees are invited to participate in the closing Celebration Reception on Monday evening for a fun-filled evening of networking and entertainment. Hors d'oeuvres will be served in a fun, casual environment where we will celebrate the past year's achievements in the field of GI/endoscopy nursing.

WELCOME RECEPTION

$35,000

Welcome attendees to Seattle by hosting the Saturday evening celebration. Attendees will look forward to reconnecting and relaxing with friends upon arrival. Event includes a reception with light hors d'oeuvres, entertainment, dancing and cash bar.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES BEVERAGE BREAK

$2,500

Welcome the SGNA leadership by hosting the House of Delegates beverage break. SGNA leadership will appreciate this break in the day to network and rejuvenate their spirits. Note: Cocktail napkins and cups with sponsor logo are available through SGNA at cost for each break.
