

Nichole Burke, RN, CGRN, CASA

Senior Endoscopy Operations Manager

Email: Nichole.burke@uniteddigestive.com

678-427-6881

Professional Summary

Experienced and dedicated Registered Nurse with over 32 years in GI nursing, specializing in endoscopy operations and leadership. Proven track record in clinical excellence, strategic management, and professional development. Committed to advancing gastroenterology nursing through active involvement in SGNA and ABCGN, and fostering collaborative, high-performing teams.

Education

Diploma of Registered Nursing @ Bronson School of Nursing 1993 (Western Michigan University)

Professional Experience

Senior Endoscopy Operations Manager

United Digestive 2022-current

- Lead operational strategy and clinical oversight for endoscopy services.
- Collaborate with multidisciplinary teams to ensure quality care and compliance.
- Mentor and develop nursing staff, promoting excellence and engagement.

Previous Roles in GI Nursing (consecutive to current position)

Clinical Director-GI Specialists of Georgia 2014

Nurse Manager- Northside Hospital Peri Operative Services/ Endoscopy 2005

Charge Nurse- Naples Community Hospital Endoscopy 1995

Professional Involvement

SGNA National Involvement

- Candidate for Nominations & Elections Committee (2026-2027)

SGNA Regional Involvement

- Newly active participant

Recognitions

- Moderate Sedation Certification
- CASA Certification

Skills & Competencies

- Strategic Leadership & Team Building
- Communication & Relationship Management
- Time & Task Management
- Clinical Operations & Accreditation Readiness and Compliance
- Professional Development & Mentorship